

Got something to say? We're listening..

You can tell us which issues are most important to working families!

We want to build a movement of working families that will address the issues that families consider important. Our first goal is to develop a blueprint for change that will help working parents provide a better life for themselves and their children.

In order to hear from you, we will have community meetings starting in Fall 2007. If your neighborhood group, club, church or other organization would like to participate in one of these meetings, please fill out the information below. Someone will get in touch with you soon to schedule a meeting.

After a year of outreach we hope to bring together 10,000 working families in four meetings across the nation in September 2008. These 10,000 families will create and promote a family blueprint as part of the “Equal Voice: Campaign for America’s Families.”

The Marguerite Casey Foundation and the Alabama organizations below are currently involved in this effort:

Alabama Arise/Arise Citizens' Policy Project
Alabama Coalition Against Hunger/Alabama Council on Human Relations
Alabama Organizing Project
Federation of Child Care Centers of Alabama (FOCAL)
Federation of Southern Cooperatives
Greater Birmingham Ministries
Hispanic Interest Coalition of Alabama (HICA)
VOICES for Alabama's Children

Yes, I'm interested in having a community meeting in my area. Please contact me!
